

National Evaluation Series™ Test Framework Worksheet Early Childhood Education (Age 3-Age 8)

Notes:		Multiple-Choice Questions (approx.)	Test Proportion (approx.)
CONTENT DOMAIN I—CHILD DEVELOPMENT, LEARNING, AND THE LEARNING ENVIRONMENT		27	27%
0001	Understand child development from ages 3–8, including developmental, cultural, linguistic, and other differences among children, and factors that influence young children's development and learning.
0002	Understand how to create positive learning environments that are safe and challenging and that support linguistic and cultural diversity and inclusion.
0003	Understand how to design, implement, and evaluate learning experiences and instruction in order to promote all children's development and learning.
0004	Understand the goals, benefits, types, and uses of assessment young children and families.	rt
CONTENT DOMAIN II—COMMUNICATION, LANGUAGE, AND LITERACY DEVELOPMENT 27%			27%
0005	Understand oral language development in young children and how to provide learning experiences and instruction that encourage children's development of language and emergent literacy skills.
0006	Understand the foundations of early literacy development and strategies for developing young children's proficiency in emergent literacy.
0007	Understand instruction in reading and reading comprehension for young children.
Understand writing processes and strategies for developing children's writing competence.
CONTENT DOMAIN III—LEARNING ACROSS THE CURRICULUM 33
Understand music, drama, creative movement, dance, and visual arts and how to facilitate arts learning for young children.
Understand health, safety, and physical activity and how to facilitate young children's learning about health and safety and participation in physical activities.
Understand mathematical concepts, processes, and skills and how to facilitate young children's mathematical learning.
Understand social studies concepts and skills and how to facilitate young children's learning in social studies.
	0001 0002 0003 0004 CONTTAND L 0005 0006 0007 0008 CONTCURR 0009 0010	CONTENT DOMAIN I—CHILD DEVELOPMENT, LEARNING, AND THE LEARNING ENVIRONMENT O001 Understand child development from ages 3—8, including develor cultural, linguistic, and other differences among children, and far influence young children's development and learning. O002 Understand how to create positive learning environments that a challenging and that support linguistic and cultural diversity and once instruction in order to promote all children's development and learning environment that a challenging and that support linguistic and cultural diversity and once instruction in order to promote all children's development and learning environment and learning experience and families. CONTENT DOMAIN II—COMMUNICATION, LANGUAGE, AND LITERACY DEVELOPMENT O005 Understand oral language development in young children and learning experiences and instruction that encourage children's claring experiences and instruction that encourage children's claring experiences and instruction that encourage children's claring experiences and instruction in reading comprehension for children. O006 Understand the foundations of early literacy development and seveloping young children's proficiency in emergent literacy. O007 Understand writing processes and strategies for developing children. O008 Understand writing processes and strategies for developing children. CONTENT DOMAIN III—LEARNING ACROSS THE CURRICULUM O009 Understand music, drama, creative movement, dance, and visuate for acilitate arts learning for young children. O100 Understand health, safety, and physical activity and how to facilitate arts learning about health and safety and participation in pactivities. O111 Understand mathematical concepts, processes, and skills and how to facilitate arts learning about health and safety and participation in pactivities.	CONTENT DOMAIN I—CHILD DEVELOPMENT, LEARNING, AND THE LEARNING ENVIRONMENT Understand child development from ages 3–8, including developmental, cultural, linguistic, and other differences among children, and factors that influence young children's development and learning. Understand how to create positive learning environments that are safe a challenging and that support linguistic and cultural diversity and inclusion understand how to design, implement, and evaluate learning experience instruction in order to promote all children's development and learning. Understand the goals, benefits, types, and uses of assessment to support young children and families. CONTENT DOMAIN II—COMMUNICATION, LANGUAGE, AND LITERACY DEVELOPMENT Understand oral language development in young children and how to prove learning experiences and instruction that encourage children's development language and emergent literacy skills. Understand the foundations of early literacy development and strategies developing young children's proficiency in emergent literacy. Understand instruction in reading and reading comprehension for young children. Understand writing processes and strategies for developing children's writing competence. CONTENT DOMAIN III—LEARNING ACROSS THE CURRICULUM Understand music, drama, creative movement, dance, and visual arts and to facilitate arts learning for young children. Understand health, safety, and physical activity and how to facilitate your children's learning about health and safety and participation in physical activities. Understand mathematical concepts, processes, and skills and how to facilitate your children's mathematical learning.	CONTENT DOMAIN I—CHILD DEVELOPMENT, LEARNING, AND THE LEARNING ENVIRONMENT Understand child development from ages 3–8, including developmental, cultural, linguistic, and other differences among children, and factors that influence young children's development and learning. Understand how to create positive learning environments that are safe and challenging and that support linguistic and cultural diversity and inclusion. Understand how to design, implement, and evaluate learning experiences and instruction in order to promote all children's development and learning. Understand the goals, benefits, types, and uses of assessment to support young children and families. CONTENT DOMAIN II—COMMUNICATION, LANGUAGE, AND LITERACY DEVELOPMENT Understand oral language development in young children and how to provide learning experiences and instruction that encourage children's development of language and emergent literacy skills. Understand the foundations of early literacy development and strategies for developing young children's proficiency in emergent literacy. Understand writing processes and strategies for developing children's writing competence. CONTENT DOMAIN III—LEARNING ACROSS THE CURRICULUM Understand music, drama, creative movement, dance, and visual arts and how to facilitate arts learning for young children. Understand health, safety, and physical activity and how to facilitate young children's learning about health and safety and participation in physical activities. Understand mathematical concepts, processes, and skills and how to facilitate young children's mathematical learning.	CONTENT DOMAIN I—CHILD DEVELOPMENT, LEARNING, AND THE LEARNING ENVIRONMENT Outland child development from ages 3–8, including developmental, cultural, linguistic, and other differences among children, and factors that influence young children's development and learning. Outland Understand how to create positive learning environments that are safe and challenging and that support linguistic and cultural diversity and inclusion. Outland Understand how to design, implement, and evaluate learning experiences and instruction in order to promote all children's development and learning. Outland Understand the goals, benefits, types, and uses of assessment to support young children and families. CONTENT DOMAIN II—COMMUNICATION, LANGUAGE, AND LITERACY DEVELOPMENT Outland Understand oral language development in young children and how to provide learning experiences and instruction that encourage children's development of language and emergent literacy skills. Oud Understand the foundations of early literacy development and strategies for developing young children's proficiency in emergent literacy. Outlanderstand writing processes and strategies for developing children's writing competence. CONTENT DOMAIN III—LEARNING ACROSS THE CURRICULUM Outlanderstand music, drama, creative movement, dance, and visual arts and how to facilitate arts learning for young children's activities. Outlanderstand mathematical concepts, processes, and skills and how to facilitate young children's mathematical learning. Outlanderstand mathematical concepts, processes, and skills and how to facilitate young children's mathematical learning.	CONTENT DOMAIN I—CHILD DEVELOPMENT, LEARNING, AND THE LEARNING ENVIRONMENT O001 Understand child development from ages 3—8, including developmental, cultural, linguistic, and other differences among children, and factors that influence young children's development and learning. O002 Understand how to create positive learning environments that are safe and challenging and that support linguistic and cultural diversity and inclusion. O003 Understand how to design, implement, and evaluate learning experiences and instruction in order to promote all children's development and learning. O004 Understand the goals, benefits, types, and uses of assessment to support young children and families. CONTENT DOMAIN II—COMMUNICATION, LANGUAGE, AND LITERACY DEVELOPMENT O005 Understand oral language development in young children and how to provide learning experiences and instruction that encourage children's development of language and emergent literacy skills. O006 Understand the foundations of early literacy development and strategies for developing young children's proficiency in emergent literacy. O007 Understand instruction in reading and reading comprehension for young children. O008 Understand writing processes and strategies for developing children's writing competence. CONTENT DOMAIN III—LEARNING ACROSS THE CURRICULUM O009 Understand masic, drama, creative movement, dance, and visual arts and how to facilitate arts learning for young children's learning about health and safety and participation in physical activities. O010 Understand mathematical learning. O011 Understand mathematical learning. O012 Understand social studies concepts, processes, and skills and how to facilitate young	CONTENT DOMAIN I—CHILD DEVELOPMENT, LEARNING, AND THE LEARNING ENVIRONMENT O001 Understand child development from ages 3–8, including developmental, cultural, linguistic, and other differences among children, and factors that influence young children's development and learning. O002 Understand how to create positive learning environments that are safe and challenging and that support linguistic and cultural diversity and inclusion. O003 Understand how to design, implement, and evaluate learning experiences and instruction in order to promote all children's development and learning. O004 Understand the goals, benefits, types, and uses of assessment to support young children and families. CONTENT DOMAIN II—COMMUNICATION, LANGUAGE, AND LITERACY DEVELOPMENT O005 Understand oral language development in young children and how to provide learning experiences and instruction that encourage children's development of language and emergent literacy skills. O006 Understand the foundations of early literacy development and strategies for developing young children's proficiency in emergent literacy. O007 Understand writing processes and strategies for developing children's writing competence. CONTENT DOMAIN III—LEARNING ACROSS THE current of language and emergent literacy skills. O009 Understand music, drama, creative movement, dance, and visual arts and how to facilitate arts learning for young children. O009 Understand music, drama, creative movement, dance, and visual arts and how to facilitate arts learning for young children. O010 Understand mathematical concepts, processes, and skills and how to facilitate young children's mathematical learning. O011 Understand social studies concepts and skills and how to facilitate young

	0013	Understand science concepts and skills and how to facilitate young children's learning in science.
	CONTENT DOMAIN IV—PROFESSIONAL RELATIONSHIPS AND RESPONSIBILITIES		13	13%
Competency	0014	Understand strategies for building positive, collaborative relationships with children's families, other professionals, and community agencies and organizations.
Com	Understand the roles and responsibilities of early childhood educators.

